A 56-year-old New York prison inmate says former Syracuse University assistant basketball coach Bernie Fine began molesting him more than 40 years ago and continued to have sexual contact with him into adulthood.

Floyd Van Hooser told the Associated Press during a prison interview that Fine began sexually abusing him when Van Hooser was 14 years old.

Van Hooser is the fourth man to accuse Fine of sexual abuse. He initially made his allegations to the Post Standard of Syracuse.

Fine was fired Nov. 27 after three men said he molested them when they were boys. Fine has denied wrongdoing and has not been charged. A federal investigation is ongoing.
